

Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc.

2021 Marsh Medallion Hunt

Quest at the Fest!

This is what the actual medallion looks like!

Join us in the 9th Annual Marsh Medallion Hunt during the 48TH Warrens Cranberry Festival
September 24-26, 2021
Win a cash prize!!!

The Marsh Medallion will be hidden within the Warrens Cranberry Festival grounds and clues will be given starting on Thursday, September 23, 2021.

Check for clues on our website www.cranfest.com and our Facebook page www.facebook.com/cranfest.

Two clues will be given each day, until the Medallion is found.

The person who finds the Marsh Medallion can receive his/her prize by bringing the medallion to the Warrens Cranberry Festival office at 402 Pine Street, in Warrens.

The medallion is a 2 3/4" diameter gold and red coin with a red ribbon, that reads "If found please return to the Warrens Cranberry Festival office at 402 Pine St. to claim prize."

- The medallion is not hidden in a dangerous place! You will not need to climb trees, use a ladder, dig in the ground or in any way put yourself in danger to find it.
- The medallion might be hidden in the branches of a tree or other elevated location but no climbing is necessary to reach it.
- The medallion might be partially covered, but digging isn't necessary.
- Please be respectful of property when searching for the medallion. The Festival reserves the right to stop the hunt at any time if public or private property is destroyed.
- If the medallion is not found by 5:00 p.m., on Sunday, September 26, 2021, the Festival has the right to terminate the hunt/contest.
- By entering this contest, the entrant grants permission for the Festival to use his/her name, voice, photograph and/or other likeness for advertising and/or publicity without compensation.
- Festival employees, members, board members and their immediate families are not eligible to participate or win.
